“ Katey...my first, best, friend after moving here, my first sleepover, my partner in crime, the shoulder I cried on when I had boy problems, my laugh and be silly with...your parents treated me like I was theirs...to me, they were Mom and Dad just like my own and I spent as much time at your house as I did my own. We grew up and life took us down different paths. However, I thought of you often and wondered where life had taken you and hoped that it was good to you...I wish we'd have had an opportunity to have one more laugh together in spite of life.

To Ellen, Beth and all of Katey's family, my deepest sympathies.

“ Dear family and friends of Dear Katie,

We will miss Katie's smiling face and good sense of humor. She impacted the lives of others in so many ways. She never passed judgement on others, and always shared what was on her mind. She had numerous life time friends that cherished and loved her. You were loved by many. Our Sympathies go out to her family and son. Rest in peace, Katie. Love, Rudy & Debbie Coca
