“ Grandma Kathy taught me how to lean on God and his word whenever I'm in trouble at first I used to think she was just a crazy religious woman until she would pray with me and she knew the things I was dealing with before I ever said anything and everytime she prayed I felt Gods presence even though I didn't fully understand it at the time. She was there for me through good and bad and if it wasn't for Grandma Kathy I wouldn't have the relationship I have with God today. Grandma never judged me for my terrible life choices she only showed disappointment. She loved me for me and boy did I need someone like her growing up. Grandma and I have Defintly had disagreements but always made up for it in the end and I also learned pretty quickly grandma don't play games lol. She was there for me when I had Kellirina in a way i couldve never expected she always told me "that girl is gonna be special" and "you make sure that girl knows Jesus" I'm proud to say grandma ive done what you said and you were right lol. I miss grandma taking us to parks and as an adult I miss visiting her because she always made a home cooked meal and never said no if I wanted to stay the night. I love you so much grandma you were the biggest blessing I couldve ever asked for!!! Kellirina too! We love you sooo much

“ Auntie had the ability to scold me, and it felt like my mom was hollering at me.
She was instrumental in guiding me to Jesus. It was with her, I went to a play at Oak Creek Assembly, nearly 40 years ago. That's when I realized I needed a Savior.
There is a scripture, she must have beat it into me, I still recall it, 1 John 4:4 NASB You are from God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world.
She was always there if I needed her. I will miss her. Love you auntie!
Now she is complete in Him.
