“ Kim we shared a special child hood growing up on Lathrop Ave. Playing games, creating plays, making forts out of cardboard boxes and chasing all over the neighborhood! I will always remember you and your smile. God bless you and your family!

“ Kim, missing your every repetitive phone call, the consideration for peoples views, your steadfast faith to God and your tenacity to get up every day. Your genuine self was far more visible than mental illness. Your community knew you and will miss you. I your sister am sad, but glad you are at your final destination. Whole in every way in your glorified body.
