“ I've been thinking about this for a little while, and I would like to share a memory of Laurie. The Meistads would always come to our dairy farm in Buffalo Co. every year for deer hunting season. But one thing me and my sisters always did at Christmas and Thanksgiving was to put on a little show/program for family or who ever we could get to sit down and watch. Well one year we talked the "City" cousins to join in on the show. . and I have to give Laurie a lot of credit, cause I know in my heart, that she really didn't want any part of it. . but being a good sport, she read the lines and did what I directed her to do. Laurie was always sorta quiet around me and she was closer in age to my younger sister, and I always hung out with Laurie's older sister (Vicki) and Laurie's younger sister Brenda, watched my boys when she lived in Gilmanton. So I never really got to know Laurie that well . but I come to realized that she had a good heart and soul. And every time I see a fishing show on t.v. I think of her, cause Vicki told me one time that she LOVED to watch them shows. . even though I thought they were boring. . haha. . I could never understand a girl watching "Fishing Shows". How cool is that? :) RIP Laurie and go fishing sweetheart! :)
