“ I am sorry to read of your loss. Many have lost loved ones and want to see them again. The Bible actually says what will be death's unavoidable eventuality at Revelation 21:4, which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Death will be gone forever. May this be of encouragement.

“ John,

Sorry to read about your mother. I always remember her fun personality and having lunch at the bar when we painted together that one summer. May she rest in peace and may perpetual light shine upon her.

I never knew that we shared the same birthday.
