“ My sincerest condolences to the Galuska family for your loss. Larry was a good man, always there to share his knowledge and lend a helping hand to his coworkers. I enjoyed listening to him talk about the farm, and I still have a box of good egg cartons I was saving for him. God Bless and take care.

“ It is a time of joy and sadness. Joy that he is at peace; free from the pains of this life. Joy in the memories of his life. I didn't know Larry, but am a friend of his daughter, Kim. I wish I had known Larry as well. Kim is his "spittin image"! My heart goes out to the family. I know he is missed by all. Just a friend....mike
