April 16, 1946 - November 22, 2025

LeAnna R. (nee: Beck) Haigh, 79, passed away on Saturday, November 22, 2025.

LeAnna was born on April 16, 1946 to the late Edwin and Ruth (nee: Nelson) Beck. She was united in marriage to Edward Allen Haigh on November 29, 1969 in Racine.

After graduating from Washington Park High School in 1964, LeAnna went on to earn degrees from Carthage College in 1968, and her Master's of Education from Aurora University in 1987. She worked as a teacher for first, second, and third grade for Racine Unified School District for over 30 years, retiring in 2001. LeAnna was a member of Living Faith (formerly Atonement Lutheran Church) since 1969. She was also a member of Racine Junior Women's and the Racine Choral.

LeAnna will always be remembered for the boundless love she shared with her family and the joy she brought into every room. Her life was filled with music-whether she was singing along to her favorite songs, tapping her foot to a rhythm, or simply letting a melody brighten her day. Above all, her greatest passion was her family. She adored children, and nothing brought her more happiness than being a grandmother. Her grandchildren were the lights of her life. LeAnna's gentle spirit, musical heart, and deep love for her family will forever be carried in the hearts of those who knew her.

LeAnna will be deeply missed by her husband, Edward Haigh; son, Jonathan (Melissa) Haigh; grandchildren, Sydney Johanna, Jaxon Allen, and Miley

Margaret; brother, David (Fawn) Beck. She is further survived by nieces, nephews, other family members, and friends.

“ Leanna and I became friends through our singing. In the early 80's we put together a trio of Carolyn Rogalski, Leanna, and myself. We had a good time being together and after Carolyn died and Leanna went back to teaching, we lost touch. One memory I have of singing with her was when we were asked to sing at a wedding. We stood behind the piano player as we practiced, when he turned toward us and asked, "Who is singing what part?" He said our voices were such a perfect blend, he couldn't tell the difference. Needless to say, we both enjoyed singing together for several years.

“ I will always remember LeAnna as a beautiful person with a beautiful voice. I would be their server when she and her family came in, as I worked at The Summit Restaurant years ago. We had some classes together at Park HS and I was in the orchestra. She will be missed by all who knew her. My condolences to Ed and her family.

“ I met LeAnna in 1970 when I started teaching at Windpoint school with her. We've been friends ever since. Leanna and I would sing together for musical events her parents put on for Amway. She also sang for my wedding. Everytime I put my earrings on I think of her, because she pierced my ears with a darning needle and an ice cube. Ouch! For many years Ed and LeAnna and three other couples came to our house for a New Year's Eve dinner. And, Of course, there were all of the girl luncheons. I have so many precious memories of LeAnna and all of them have her smiling.

“ When I moved to Racine to be a first year teacher, my two roommates worked at Wind Point, and through them, I got to know Leanna. It didn't take long to discover her beautiful voice, and when it came time for my wedding in ND, she and Ed drove the distance so she could sing for it. We were in quite a large Gothic type church with a pipe organ that, by itself, could create goose bumps. When Leanna's voice was added to that glorious organ and spacious narthex, it felt like a heavenly space. That was near the beginning of a 50 year friendship. Friends, family, and former students lives were impacted by her loving, musical gift.

“ Leanna and I taught at Wind Point School. She was Miss Beck, I was Miss Beck and across from us was Miss Eck. Those were the days! Leanna will be missed by all of us who shared potlucks, picnics, concerts and our friends. Rest in peace, dear Leanna. Sonja
