“ It so sad that you left so young, however it's better that you are at peace and no more pain. You were a beautiful, kind, respectful, helpful Lady. You were a strong lady waiting to see your grandkids be born. Your children are so united and doing their best. You left your parents with so much pain, however they understand that you are in a better place now. They always had so much love toward you and always will . You were daddy's daughter and will continue even if you are in heaven. As for other family members and freinds you will never be forgotten and and always remember as of such a wonderful, funny, happy person you were. I will miss you and remember the times we saw each other. May you RIP my friend 🙏
