Lillian graduated from William Horlick High School "Class of 1936". She was united in marriage to Joseph Rondone at Sacred Heart Catholic Church on April 20, 1940.

She was a volunteer for St. Mary's Auxiliary for 39 years, active in Cardiac Capers, lifelong member of Catholic Women's Club, and Vittoria Colona. A special thank you to the staff of Wheaton Franciscan Hospice for the loving care provided for Lillian.

“ Once, as a kid, Grandma was taking me to Roosters for breakfast. She had just gotten new dentures and was showing them to me and looking at them in the rear view mirror. A man who was turning in front of us thought she was smiling at him and he tipped his hat. I had never before or since seen someone tip their hat for real. She said " If I made his day, Im glad". That was grandma. making people happy even by accident.

“ Any memory of Lillian would be one filled with love, laughter and food; many times all three. Lillian embodied grace, charm, compassion and joy and I will miss her tremendously. My prayers go out to her family, a family blessed to be led by this outstanding woman. Personally, Lillian taught me about cooking, selecting high quality merchandise, preparing a welcoming home, forgiveness, the value of family history, how to include everybody all the time and living authentically. No time ever spent with her was wasted, even if we merely sat around reading the Inquirer. Lillian means love to me, God rest her soul.
