“ Like many here, I met Lisa on a Shar-Pei email group about 13 years ago. During those years, we became very good friends. Five years ago, I met Lisa to help celebrate her 50th birthday. We had a great time with massages, pedicures, etc and just being together. The second visit to Lisa was to help her with Blossom and getting Blossom to Carol and Dave for a new chapter in Blossom's life. And this past week, for a third visit with Lisa. This past week was one of the most special in my lifetime. Carol and I spent time with Lisa visiting about our Pei kids and times from our past. We sang, we laughed, and we cried. But most importantly we shared special moments that can not be described, except to say they were blessings. In all the years that I've known Lisa, I have never heard her say an unkind word about anyone; she has always been an encourager and supporter. I was blessed by her life and friendship and in her death. To be able to stand beside her, holding her hand, and praying as she passed from this life to a new one in Heaven, was a treasure. I loved her dearly, as a sister and will never stop missing her. BUT, as Carol said to her, "You are an inspiration" that goes for me too. Lisa inspired me to be a better person and friend. She showed us how to live with much physical pain, but not be a complainer. Her glass wasn't half empty or half full, it was running over. Psalm 23:5 "My cup Runneth Over" means I have more than enough for my needs. That sums up Lisa's life. She told us,, "I have had a GREAT life. I have a son that I love very much. I've had a great life." I will get to meet Lisa for a 4th visit and it will last an eternity. For now, my heart aches for what I've lost, but I rejoice in what Lisa has found. A life in eternity with our Creator and she is dancing before His Throne and has no pain. Thank you Lisa for always being there when I needed a friend. I love you to the moon and back.

“ To my dear cousin Lisa, I remember your gardens well, especially your exuberance over the petals blooming after your hard toil. Now you have passed and it leaves me to think sometimes God picks a flower that's still in full bloom. Sometimes the flower that is chosen, we feel He's picked to soon.

I am at peace knowing; in God's heavenly garden, He has placed the ones we treasure. In your new garden in heaven, may the morning sun caress you, the rains of change refresh you, and the gentle breeze of His Spirit bring peace to you.

I come to the garden alone
While the dew is still on roses
And the voice I hear falling
On my ear the son of God discloses

And He walks with me and He talks with me
And He tells me I am His own
And the joy we share as we tarry there
None other has ever known

He speaks and the sound of His voice
Is so sweet the birds hush their singing
And the melody that He gave to me
Within my heart is ringing

And He walks with me and He talks with me
And He tells me I am His own
And the joy we share as we tarry there
None other has ever known

“ It is so hard to Believe that I will never get to meet you Lisa in person you had to leave so soon. But I understand you were in so much pain. Now you are pain free and you have your peibabies with you once again.

I met Lisa about 14 years ago on the internet through our dogs at the time she had Chappy and Rolls. She decided to get another not sure if Rolls was sick then or not but she ended up getting a flowered girl and little did I know we both got our girls from the same lady they were sisters and twins a left and right twin we called them that because of there markings. I have a picture of my girl Tiania which I will share and I am sure Lisa finally got to meet her and is taking care of her for me. Thank you Lisa for being my friend and I am sure some day we will meet just not here.

Love always your Friendlypei friend Cindy de Nottbeck

“ I was so blessed to have had Lisa as a friend for the last 10 years. She was an inspiration to me and taught me how to live life with grace, courage and dignity. I am also grateful that she entrusted her dog Blossom to me to care for. Her mutual friend, Jo Ann and I were able to come to Racine & share the last week of Lisa's life with her. What memories were crammed into a week! Stories, tears, laughter and even songs! The world will be a little less bright without Lisa, but I know she is dancing with the angels! I will always love you, dear friend! Carol McClain

Although I live in Brazil, I have know Lisa for the last more than 10 years through our Friendlypei List in the internet and we become very good friends. It's very hard to think we will not have her sweet words any more encouraging us. She was a very sweet person and I loved her very much, always had a gentle word. I wanto you to know I will always love you, my dear and sweet friend and will never forget you!!!
