“ I would like to say "goodbye for now"...to an amazing woman. Lois, you have been a "second mother" to me in ways unimaginable to those around us. You have been my mentor, my friend, and confidant for over 55 years. You helped make me the person I have become today. Thank-you, for all that you have done!

It broke my heart to see your brilliant/caring mind being clouded with the "cobwebs" of this terrible disease.

Now rest in peace, no further confusion for you. The "cobwebs" are gone. Now you can watch over all of your Family with love and pride at your accomplishments here on earth. Rejoice at all of the good you have done and how many lives are so much better because you were there and touched them with your "grace".

It gives me great comfort to know your beloved Denver is by your side. Be happy!

Until we meet again...Love always!
