“ I send my deepest sympathy to the Bloom family! I know of Louise through my dear friends Dave and Elena Bloom, who always credited Louise for bringing joy and happiness into their own world of raising their own family together, looking forward to spending much of their free time with Louise. Time they never regretted and now cherish. Whenever I had the honor of being around Louise I felt her love and the sense of belonging that she made everyone feel. And she had a way of lifting you up when down and believing every challenge would turn out alright in the end. A true treasure and example for us all on how to treat one another. I light an everlasting candle - her light is carried in all our hearts.

“ Louise was one of the nicest people I've known. My first memory of her was when I was only 2 years old and she lived next door with a great big black and white dog named Sunshine. Whenever I saw a cow, I called it Sunshine. Years later when I was 18, we worked together at Tek products and she was so kind to take me under her belt. I loved her
