“ I am with heavy heart at the sad news of Uncle Manuel's passing. My family and I would like to extend our heartfelt condolences to Aunt Trina, Anna, Carol, Danny, Ricky, Eddie and all of their extended families. I remember Uncle Manuel fondly. He was a great man; loyal to his wife and family. But I remember him best as being so devoted to God. He was an inspiration to me the last time I came to visit Racine. He left me with these great words of wisdom "Always Trust In God" and, for that, I will always be grateful. After losing my father Fred, I remember looking to Uncle Manuel in keeping his image alive. Now, in my sadness, I celebrate this day as they stand together before the throne of God. We pray that God grant Uncle Manuel eternal rest and give you comfort and peace in your pain.

Thinking of you in this difficult time,

*Julie Muniz Villarreal and husband, Joseph
Tiffany & Stanley Benton and son, Phoenix
Jodie & Erich Talaba and son, Eli*
