“I first met your wife and mother when she joined the aquacize class at the YMCA, so I did not know her for a long time. However, I was immediately drawn to her warmth, everlasting smile and wonderful sense of humor. We had many chats and laughs and the more I got to know her, the more I wanted to be her friend. She handled her diagnosis so bravely I was amazed. If I could be half the person she was, I would be proud. From Joanne McSweeney
