“ Dearest Auntie Marilyn, I will always remember you as a kind and gentle, loving and patient soul. Such wonderful memories I have of you and Uncle Eddie, too. You will be the soft starshine in the night sky as you dance among them with all your loved ones.

“Marilyn and Ed were our neighbors on Hayes Avenue. They were so very kind to us and our kids. Even our dog, Heinz, would visit them when he snuck out of our fenced yard and Ed would bring him back home and secure the gate after their visit. I'm sorry that I didn't know where Marilyn moved after leaving her apartment in Racine. Our condolences to her family and peace and joyful blessings to Marilyn, life well lived.

“My dear Aunt Marilyn, though miles separated us in these past years, you were always in my heart. So many wonderful memories from the time I was a small child until now. Every weekend at your house, the trips to the farm, going to church together and so many more. Your beautiful spirit was always a light to me. You will remain in my heart as a very special Aunt and I love you dearly. I know you are safely in God's arms now and reunited with all that have gone before you. Until we meet again.....all my love.

“ Dearest Auntie Marilyn, the great spirit has come to take you on your final journey. What a glorious day it will be when you are dancing in the stars with your beloved Nancy and Uncle Eddie surrounded by all those whose lives you have touched. You were the kindest gentlest soul, there is a very special place in Gods hands for you. My fondest memory of you among many has to be how you would always be Uncle Eddies fall guy for his jokes, you two could always make us laugh just hard. Rest now in the heavens Auntie Marilyn, we love you and you will forever be in our hearts until we meet again.
