Marjie Lou Evans

Racine – Marjie Lou (nee: Jensen) Evans, 76, passed away on Monday, February 10, 2014 at Wheaton Franciscan Healthcare-All Saints.

Marjie was born in Racine, on August 23, 1937, the daughter of the late Louis Martin and Stella Marjorie (nee: Genszler) Jensen. After graduation from Washington Park High School, Marjie moved to New York to pursue a career in acting. Theater and drama were always of special interest to her, which she enjoyed throughout her life. She worked many different jobs, as she and her first husband traveled around the country, following their dreams “always looking for greener pastures”. After her father passed away in Texas, Marjie moved north with her mother to Milwaukee, where she attended MATC and UWM, completing her Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing. Marjie loved her work as a Psych Nurse at St. Luke’s Hospital in Racine for 19 years, retiring in 1996. An avid student, she took many classes throughout her life including accounting, tax and computer classes. She was a member of Mt. Pleasant Lutheran Church and the Retired Nurses Assoc. (RING), YMCA, Razor Sharp and Bible Study.

Marjie met Charles F. Clausen during physical fitness classes at the YMCA. They were married on July 7, 1994. Together they continued their interest in physical fitness. Marjie also enjoyed reading and had a special interest in spiritual teachings.

Surviving are her husband, Charles; his sons, Christopher (Karen) Clausen, Curt Clausen and Craig (Jodi) Clausen, three grandchildren; special nieces and nephews, Mary Kay (Steve) Schulz of Madison, Tom (Robin) Wright of Milladore, Bill Wright of Alma Center, Bob Wright of Black River Falls, Jim (Cathy) Wright, of Merillan, Steve (Kathleen) Hesse of Racine and Kimberly (Eddie) Klocke of Racine; brother-in-law, Jack Hesse of Racine. She is further survived by great nieces, great nephews, other relatives and many special friends.

Marjie was preceded in death by her sisters, Stella Kay Wright and Nancy Jo Hesse.

Visitation and funeral services will be held at Mt. Pleasant Lutheran Church, 1700 S. Green Bay Rd. on Friday, February 14, 2014 at 11 a.m. with Rev. Christine Thomas-Echelbarger officiating. There will be visitation at the church on Friday before services from 9:30 a.m. until service time at 11 a.m.

Marjie will be laid to rest at Southern Wisconsin Veterans Memorial Cemetery in a private ceremony.

For those wishing to remember Marjie in a special way, donations may be made to WFHC Cancer Center, 3809 Spring St., Racine, WI 53405.

“ I have so many wonderful Memories of my Aunt Marjie!! She was always a rock for me and also there to listen. I will miss her so much. My favorite memory of her is when her and Charlie would come up to visit and spend time at the trailer park with us. I was always so excited to see her. She was always genuine and sincere. I am relieved that she can breathe easier now and isn't in pain any longer. Love You Marjie!!!
