

Marjorie M. Christoffel

January 4, 1913 - October 31, 2012

Marjorie Christoffel

Marjorie M. Christoffel (née Fonk), age 99, passed away peacefully Wednesday, October 31, in her home.

Born on January 4, 1913 in Paris Township, Kenosha County, to Camilla (née Biehn) and Charles Fonk, she was a descendent of families who settled the Wisconsin Territory before statehood. She moved to Racine in 1933 to attend Moore's Business College.

Following graduation, she was employed in the accounting department of Webster Electric Co.

In 1942, she married Howard W. Christoffel who died in 1990. Survivors include her daughter,

Mary (Fred) Bruha of Racine, grandchildren,

Douglas (Claudia) Bruha of Astoria, NY and

Margaret (Georg) Huber of Regensburg,

Germany; her son, John (Beth) of Nokomis FL and grandchildren Melissa (Guillaume) Jacob of

Nokomis; Daniel (Graziella) of Lake Forest, IL;

David (Lara) of Houston, TX; and Michael of Arlington, TX. Also, surviving are 10 great Grandchildren and nieces and nephews.

Through the years, she enjoyed creating a warm, nurturing environment for her family, gardening, traveling, completing cross word puzzles and playing bridge. Her kind and generous heart, along with her ready smile will be missed. However, her strong will and spirit will remain.

Relatives and friends are invited to meet with the family Wednesday, November 7, at St. Paul the Apostle's Church, 6400 Spring St., Racine, from 9 -11 am. A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 11 am by Rev. Terry Huebner. Interment will be at Graceland Cemetery at 2 pm.

The family is very grateful for the loving, compassionate care provided by Anna; which allowed Marjorie to remain in her home.
