“ Marge Reimann ranks at the top of her class, as a most loving wife, caring mother and grandmother and friend. Marge was just an all-around nice, genuine and caring person, who in my case, I was glad to know and call a Friend! In the last few years, Marge’s character, inner strength and faith all became quite evident, because she was constantly being tested by her relentless cancer. After watching Marge fight her on-going medical battles, you knew she was strong willed, as well as being relentless herself, because this Woman Never Gave Up and met her many challenges, “head on.” Marge would definitely be the Captain of any team I had!

*Even though Marge lost her battle to cancer, she actually won the war,(big picture), because she provided us all with her legacy and love to carry on with, which I’m sure the Reimann Family will honor! See you Marge with my partner, Nanette.
Curtis, Your Friend.*
