“ Marvin was a wonderful person. I met Marvin through his daughter Sue my best friend. He enjoyed going to wrestling cheering and jeering for his favorites. As I got to know him, realized how much he enjoyed life. He liked to hang out with his family at home or out with his friends. He was a avid BINGO player. Also give him a Pull Tab and he won.

The birth of his grandson, Scott was a blessing for Marv. Scott was his best friend, they went on so many adventures, watching the airplanes at the airport, traveling around the city, eating at McDonalds.

Later in years Marv liked to reminisce of the good ole days. Out on the farm working with his brothers. Or taking care of the horses at the park. Oh the stories he has shared. He always had the woman dancing. He loved to dance. We all need to take the time and dance for Marv. Love you Marv, Sarah
