Mildred Ocock

WEST ALLIS – Mildred (nee: Beaumont) Ocock, 95, passed away on Wednesday, February 16, 2011 at Village at Manor Park. She was born in the family home in Lisbon township March 21, 1915, the daughter of Alfred and Eunice (nee: Russell) Beaumont. Mildred was a graduate of Waukesha High School. She was united in marriage to George K. Ocock.

Her working career began as a telephone operator in Waukesha and Racine. She later was employed with Insinkerator for 14 years, retiring in 1975.

Mildred had been a 4-H Leader and worked with the Curative Workshop. She enjoyed traveling, photography and painting, especially watercolors, becoming very prolific in her 80's, taking classes and even had a show at Alverno College.

Surviving are two daughters and sons-in-law, Susan (David) Ornstein of Ossining, NY and Nancy (Lance) King of Racine; granddaughters, Jennifer (Pekko) Manninen and Sarah King all of Racine; sister-in-law, Anna Rankin; and Godson, Thomas Beaumont. She is further survived by nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends, including Judy Thuss.

Mildred was preceded in death by her husband, George in 1979; daughter, Karen Blanchard in 1971; brothers, Russell (Marie) Beaumont and Herbert Beaumont; sister-in-law, Emily (Merle) Nielsen.

Memorials service will be held at Atonement Lutheran Church, 2915 Wright Ave. on Wednesday, February 23, 2011 at 11 a.m. with Rev. Denise Mbise officiating. Visitation will be at church on Wednesday, before services from 9:30 a.m. until time of service. Mildred will be laid to rest in a private family service at Graceland Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorials to your local hospice have been suggested.

A special thank you for all of the care and kindness given to Mildred at Village of Manor Park.
