“ Dear Jim and Shelly,

I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. She was such a kind and giving person. I had known Nancy for 40 years. We lived in the same apartment building and as young mothers our boys became friends, as did Nancy and I. Jim, I'm sure remember Chris from down the hall. We also ran into you, your mom and Shelly at various SCJ activities over the years. Your mom was so very proud of both of you. She loved you both with all her heart. I will also miss your wonderful mother and my friend.

All our love,

Ray, Mary, Chris and Jenny Castillo

“ Jim & Shelly,

In all our years of knowing each other -- which is pretty much all our lives ;) , I have always known your mom to be a kind, caring & compassionate woman. WOW! Our mom's have seen each other through bunches of everything it seems ;) ! And if there was anyone, ANYONE, who knew the latest "skuttlebutt," SHE was the one...perhaps she'd never ever say...and that was ok....AND it was something I always found a "hoot :D " about her. To have shared the same hospital nursery together is incredible!

Through it all, I will ALWAYS recall her speaking of you both with the highest of pride & most incredibles of love -- ALWAYS. ALWAYS! ALWAYS! :D !

and it is all...VERY...BEAUTIFUL.

With God's Embrace & Hugs, Jordanna Gastrow

Psst >> To clarify (b/c edit button does not exist here ;)) : As you likely know, it was OUR MOMs who shared the same nursery together, not us kids ;) .

“ For over 70 years, Nancy & I have shared the brightest sunshine highs, the deepest despair lows, the crazy and mundane daily events, our future hopes and dreams, and the tightest held secrets. We were friends.

I will miss you.

“ *Our deepest sympathy
I have many fond memories of our Sunday play dates at Grandma and Grandpa Apple's house in Racine.
Nancy was always a kind and sharing cousin with a sense of humor and a wonderful smile.
My childhood was better with Nancy in it.*
