“ Nancy was born to be a mom. Wherever she was, there were certainly children around. Nancy and Clarence were good friends of my parents. Clarence was my dad's best man, and Nancy was our babysitter for several years. She had such a good heart and all children were treated the same. Although I hadn't seen her since the 60's at their house on Maple Grove, I'll never forget her or any of her family. My condolences to all who love her. She is definitely tending to young ones in heaven.
