“ My mother in law, Helen Lee, loved to shop in what she called "West Racine," especially, at her favorite shop, "Commitments."

She knew I would love shopping in that store, and took me to that store. That is when I met Nancy Ganzel. Later she would take her grandchildren to the shop, they loved the store as well.

However, it was through our church's (UGBC) "Tuesday Ladies Bible Study." I really grew to know, appreciate, respect and love, Nancy Ganzel.

It was obvious she knew the Scripture well, and loved her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Nancy Ganzel never appeared to look down on those who might ask a question showing they were not as knowledgeable as Nancy Ganzel, as Nancy Ganzel was "walking-talking Biblical commentary."

I will miss Nancy Ganzel, as I grew to enjoy her friendship, but most of all I will miss Nancy Ganzel asking "how can I pray for you?" I knew she did not forget those requests!

Until we meet again, I am so thankful and truly feel blessed, that God allowed us to get to know you! Nancy Ganzel, will be dearly missed!
