“ Nancy was my distant cousin through our Jacobson Grandfathers. I communicated with Nancy through Facebook, hadn't heard from her and found this entry. I'm so sorry for your loss but know she is now in the arms of our Lord and so happy to be rejoined with Russell, Judy, Uncle Dick and Aunt Millie. May she rest in peace.

Nancy was a very kind caring and sweet lady, and good friend. I pretty much lost contact with her after I moved from Racine but will always remember her and Russ in a special way. I know you don't remember me Carrie but I want you to know you and the family are in my thoughts and Prayers as you gather on May 11th to bid farewell to your Mom, your friend. Always cherish the times you had with her while she was on earth. Love and hugs, Romayne Kroll. Maiden name Romayne Fechner.

“ Nancy was so loved by many, including my dear Mom, Nella, and once my Mom introduced me to Nancy and Russ, I could easily see why! They were easy to love. May God wrap His loving arms around Nancy's family and many friends that will miss her dearly.
