“ I worked with Olga in 1978 at Southeastern Savings. She was my work buddy and we had some great times together. Laughing was our favorite thing. One time we went to Lee's Deli for lunch and ate at the little park across the street. Suddenly a swarm of bees were attacking our lunch and 2 crazy ladies were running around. We laughed so hard. I was so sorry to see of her passing.

“ A beautiful soul gone too soon. Back in the North Shore Bank days Olga brought such fun wherever she went. I can still hear her sneaky little laugh. May she rest easy in Heaven. So sorry for your family’s loss.

“ I went to high school with Olga, but got to know her better when I returned to Racine some years later, through mutual work friends and her brother’s marriage to my cousin. I’m not sure I can remember a time when she wasn’t laughing about something; just one of those people that are easy to be around. I know she will be missed.

“ Olga, my friend, was one of my best servers, when we were young at The Silver Fox. I generally manned the service bar, and only had a few of the young Ladies that enjoyed the fast paced work involved In serving the customers In the lounge. Olga was one of the best, so it’s not surprising to see comments on her love of customer service. She was a great server, and a wonderful person to work with. I have for years alway’s wondered where she ended up after the Silver Fox. I haven’t seen her In over 50 years, I will never forget her. My sincere sympathy to all.

“ Olga and I met when she moved into my neighborhood, we might have been twelve years old and have remained friends ever since. We just exchanged birthday cards in May as we had for many years. She was a person who loved life and I am so sad to hear of her passing. Rest in Peace, my friend.
