Olga E. Wilson

RACINE – Olga E. (nee: Engstrom) Wilson 72, passed away at her residence on Tuesday, November 29, 2011. She was born in Ironwood, Michigan on March 2, 1939, the daughter of the late John R. and Olga E. (Nee: Platzke) Engstrom. Olga was born and raised in the upper peninsula of MI, coming to Racine in 1960. She continued her education after her children were born, earning both her Bachelor and Masters Degree. Olga was a strong believer in the value of education, which she shared throughout her life. She retired in 1998 after teaching for 25 years. During those years, she taught in six different schools in Racine County. Olga was a lifetime member of the Wisconsin Education Associated Council and the National Education Association. She had many interests, including traveling, collecting dolls and all types of music. Olga was an accomplished organ, piano and accordion player. She also loved to garden, achieving the title of Master Gardener. She was an avid Green Bay Packer fan.

Surviving is her daughter and son-in-law, Kathryn (Gary) Christman of Racine; grandchildren, Collin Christman, Brian (Rachel) Christman and Nicole Christman. She is further survived by other relatives and friends.

Olga was preceded in death by her son, David Patrick Wilson; grandson, Scott Patrick Christman and a brother, John Engstrom.
