MY

“ Pat holds a special place in my memories. She was my Sunday school teacher at the Assembly of God when it was on Park st. Her children were my friends and part of our youth group when the church moved to Newman rd. The Farina family was an important part of my early years. Such a special family. I am so sorry for your loss

“ Remembering Pat as my neighbor for many years on Sunnyside Ave. We raised our children together and shared many experiences. She was always friendly, cooked delicious meals and shared her culinary experiences. My sympathy and prayers to her family. Sorry I missed the service but I now live in Shorewood and found the notice of her passing online. I shall remember her as my good neighbor.
