

Robert W. Ager Jr.

January 26, 1944 - March 24, 2025

Robert W. Ager Jr., 81, passed away on March 24, 2025 at Aurora Medical Center of Kenosha.

He was born in Racine, WI to Robert Ager Sr and Vivian (nee: Christmas) Ager on January 26, 1944. Robert joined the Army when he was 18, and after his service worked as a process server, running his own business, Ager's Civil Process. He was married to the love of his life, Sandra L. Ager, until her passing.

Robert is survived by his children, Tammy Frederiksen, Bobby Jo Williams, Jeffrey Ager, Shane (Beth) Ager, and Amy Martinez; numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren; siblings, Roberta Bowen, Linda (Gary Sr.) Anders, Patricia (John) Martin, Cynthia (Desmond) Wieland, Sharone Clark, Wendy Taskonis, Charlotte Lewis, Kim (William) Ashmus, Roxanne Ager, and Timothy Ager; and many nieces, nephews and friends.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Sandra L. Ager; parents, Robert Ager Sr. and Vivian Ager; his uncle/dad Earl Ager; daughters, Sara Ager and Tammy Martinez; sister Nancy Ager; and brother Randall Ager.

Robert will receive military honors on Friday, May 9, 2025 at the Southern Wisconsin Veterans Memorial Cemetery, with a celebration of life at a future time. The family would like to thank his neighbors Tracy and Shelly for helping him around his house and with errands as his health declined, as well as the team at the Manor of Kenosha for their care the past few months.
