“ Bob, you will be missed very much. I learned a lot hanging around, and working with you. How to be a great machinist like you. You taught me to shoot trap, reload my own shotgun and rifle ammo, and took me fishing too. I learned a lot about accurizing rifles, and you were there when I needed help with some projects. Always offered a shot and a beer when I visited, especially your love for the small craft beers you found.

*You were a mentor for me after my Dad passed away.
May the Lord bless you, and his light shine upon you.*
