“ So sorry for your family's loss. In our home Uncle Bobby will be remembered as a sweet, loving, generous man. He consistently greeted me with a smile and friendly conversation where he was always truly interested in everything I had to say. At parties he was always offering to share his cake with me. What more could a woman want?! He hung on every word I said and got me cake. But on a serious note, he was a wonderful man and he always lit up the room with his smile, charisma, and playful banter. The way he loved Noah; I can't even describe the magic. He will truly be missed. Amy, your parties and family get-togethers will not be the same without him. God bless you and keep you, Uncle Bobby...until we meet again! -Aly Jobke

“ Uncle Bobby you could be a real pain in the butt sometime but I miss you already. Thank you for teaching me to not only catch my own fish but for making me take the fish off the hook even though I didn't want to. Also thank you for being patient while I was learning to cast for for not getting mad when I stuck the hook in your head. Thank you for still taking me to Gooseville to play with Nathan and fishing by yourself while we looked for magic bunny wholes. Thank you for always making sure that I was safe, fed and warm while I was in your care. Despite the pressure points we always had fun. You were a great uncle and person. I will see you when I get there. Love Amy

“ If Uncle Bobby were here right now, I'd say "Thank You".

Thank you for taking me to the park every afternoon when my older brothers and sister were in school and I was too young to go. Then, for buying me a Barbie lunch box when I did start school.

Thank you for all of the times you took me fishing, swimming, sledding, to feed the geese and ducks, and to watch the planes land.

Thank you for the time we spent together playing cards, swinging and skipping stones in the park, practicing karate, watching television while eating pringles with peanut butter on them, taking me to rummage sales, and for teaching me the best hiding places in the world. .

Thank you for always giving me enough cookies to share with "The Cookie Monster".

Those are all childhood memories I will never forget. But, your kindness didn't end there. As I got older and had a family of my own you continued to give freely of your time. I'm certain that each of my children has a story to tell of the special times they've spent with you. So let me say it again, Uncle Bobby. "Thank You".

Thank you for all of the trips to Chuck E. Cheese's and McDonald's. Thank you for playing Hide-and-Go Seek and "Hide the Fozzie".

Thank you for dropping by to say "Hello" and for sometimes bringing a friend.

Thank you for telling me to call you anytime and for always being there when I did. Thank you for taking the time to play with my children and for making them feel special too. You were the best uncle ever!

I love you and will cherish your memory forever. Lori

When my Granddaughter Kenadee found out Uncle Bobby had died she had a sad look, then she asked if the angels had come to take him to heaven, when her Dad (Steve) said yes... she smiled and said good if the angels came then he is in a good place and she seemed at comfort and happy with that. She is going to be four and I can't tell you how happy this story made me.
