

Ronald Boyce Jones

April 29, 1933 - January 13, 2011

RACINE - Ronald Boyce Jones passed away comfortably into eternity on January 13, 2011. He was born to Paul and Anne Jones in Grosse Point, Michigan on April 29, 1933. On July 13, 1968 he was united in marriage to Jacqueline (nee: Hickman) Harrison. Ronald proudly and courageously served his country in Korea as a Marine from 1951-1953. He again served his country in the United States Air Force from 1956-1959. He was a golf enthusiast, a cigar aficionado, enjoyed deep-sea fishing and his years in Florida.

Ronald is survived by his wife, Jacqueline, and her children, Steven (Gail), James, John (Justine) Harrison and Ginger (Paul) Minneti; his daughter-in-law, Mary Harrison (Rick) Shaw; grandchildren, great-grandchildren and dear friends, Jim and Jodine Duram. Also surviving is his family at Lincoln Village who extended Ron so much care, kindness, and courtesy. He loved them all very much. He was preceded in death by his parents; Jacqueline's son, Mark Harrison on July 7, 1990 and daughter-in-law, Valerie Harrison on January 9, 1995.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Special thanks to Ruta Larsen and Wendy Rusch of Racine County Aging & Disability, Becky Jackson, Jonnalee Pease and Ann Murrow from Community

Care, Drs. Thomas Vravick, Pankaj Dhingra, Richard Stoltenberg and staffs, Dialysis East staff, Karen Murillo N.P. and the care received from Hospice Alliance.