“ *May Almighty God bless you and keep you Sherry. Although we have been apart for several years, we often think of you. Your name will live on with our daughter and your Godchild, Krysta Lyn. Thank you for being a part of our lives we will never forget your smile, your laugh and of course the constant faith and never ending prayers you offered on behalf of everyone else. Your a kind soul and you have left your imprint on everyone you have touched. Rest now in the peace and healing of God's love and His Holy Spirit as you are forever in His arms. Sherry was a GREAT NEIGHBOR AND FRIEND WITH MARY ANN AND MYSELF(Jerry). WE TOOK HER TO EVERY "ELVIS " SHOW SHE WANTED TO GO. DAVE I MADE PICTURES FOR HER TO SHOW YOU AND FAMILY. THAT ONE LADY SITTING NEXT TO HER BECAME A GOOD FRIEND AND WHEN SHE PASSED,, IT HURT , HER SHE COULD NOT SEE " Elvis" any more it reminder her of allot of fun. That lady was Mary Ann's old neighbor growing up that she loved, so much with all of her laughing. THIS IS TEARING BOTH OF US UP, WE WON't make it as we have a NIECES wedding to go to and would be in no mood to go.. Would be glad to put them on a cd for you. SHERRY WAS A GREAT FRIEND WHO IS MISSED. I just seen her at Wal Mart a few days ago. She told me about the eye thing,, that sugars werer great still. (i'm a diabetic also.).

Sherry would bring GUSSY down to out Apt. to play with our dog's. We just heard about OUR loss yesterday, and we are still shocked.. I hope those pictures all show up at least 20.
