“ I had worked with Shirley, at Racine Iron & Wire for quite a few years and I would pick up for work most mornings. I often told her she should run for mayor of Racine, since she new so many people and she was so well liked. Sorry for your loss, she was a great friend and person. Kevin and Pam Ehnert

“ To my Aunt Shirley who always had a smile on her face. She helped me pass my sewing class by “showing me how to sew a skirt”! I watched while she sewed! Now it’s time for you to rest. Love your niece, Ann C Graceffa-Hecht
