“ My dearest Sylvia

As we near your heavenly birthday in March all the wonderful memories flood my mind and fill my heart . You were such an inspiration to all those you met . You had a heart of gold that was open to everyone . You touched so many lives during your lifetime and left heart prints wherever you went . You will always hold a special place in my heart not only as a neighbor but a dear friend . You are missed beyond words . I miss you girlfriend ❤️ but I will see you again at the golden gates . Love you forever and always .

“ Heaven gained a beautiful angel..Anyone who met Sylvia never forgot her, she made an impact on EVERYONE she met...Sylvia had the kindest heart and loved EVERYONE and EVERYONE loved her!! She had such an infectious laugh and I loved how she would get “loud”!! Sylvia was not just my 1st cousin she was also my sister..I was always with Sylvia since the day I was born!! My heart is broken and I can feel the void she has left..I know Sylvia is happy in heaven being reunited with our loved ones especially Kimberly, but I also know she was sad to leave us..But I thank God for taking her home when HE did so she wouldn't suffer...I will forever miss my Sylvia, my beautiful bright Sunflower..Rest peacefully, we will all be ok until we see each other again!! I Love You To Eternity!!!
