“ Tom, We still have fond memories back in the days. Your birthday party at the Dells, being on the Mopeds when you left all of us behind going full throttle to keep up, and cooking up your great meals, such as, my favorite fried potatoes, and bacon spaghetti. Canning salsa and veggies was another specialty of yours. Never afraid to hand out food to a person doing work on the city street. Max, your dog, will miss you and your three walks a day to do his job. And the rides in the car where he would enjoy the sites and passer-byes would look at Max as if your girlfriend was sitting next to you! And I am sure Scottie, the cat, will miss you even though you thought he was a pain in the butt. Everyone is so thankful how you took care of your family, your son, Ryan, in Mayo, Grandpa Hopkins in Holcombe, Wi., and most of all Mom, here in Racine. Now you are reaping your rewards. Words could never express what your life meant to all of us. With Much Love, your sis, Virginia, Victor, Marcus, and Ana

R.I.P THOMAS HARRY BURMAN ; GOD BLESS THE BURMAN FAMILY

“ Tom Burman, Tom Hopkins and I one summer rode up to one of the fire towers near where my aunt Ginny and uncle John lived, grandparents and great grandparents to some of you. We climbed to the top and into the tower. Tom B. Got a little wild and I followed suit. We ignorantly dumped all the Ranger's pens and pencils over the side of the tower. Some of it hit Tom Hopkin's car and put a dent in his hood. Needless to say we got in trouble. I'm sure we are the reason the Rangers started locking the tower up.
