Timothy R. Plante

RACINE-Timothy Richard Plante, 46, passed away unexpectedly at Wheaton Franciscan Health Care- All Saints, on Monday October 29, 2012. Tim was born in VanWert, Ohio, on January 12, 1966, the son of Gerald “Jerry” and (Judy nee: Anderson) Sanders and Ed Plante of Elkhorn. In his teen years Tim was a well known boxer for Racine Boxing Club and D’Allie Boxing Club of Racine, and was known as “80 pounds of Dynamite”. Tim worked most of his career in construction, with his dad Jerry and his brother Eddie, spanning many states, until he was forced to retire due to medical reasons. He found great enjoyment in fishing, campfires, collecting “soda tabs” for Ronald McDonald House, most of all Tim found his greatest enjoyment and love spending time with his family, especially nieces, nephews and his canines, Maddie and Remmi.

Tim is survived by his son, Tony (Ashley) Barrientez of Chicago, parents, Jerry and Judy, and Ed Plante, brother, Eddie Plante (Brenda Edwards) of Elkhorn, and his children; Mindi, Dustin, Michael, Ashley, brother, Rodney (Suzy) Sanders of Oklahoma and their children; Joshua, David and Jessie, sister, Melissa (Doug) Swanson, and their children; Tyler, Tiffani, Sheena (Eric), sister, Tiffany (Derrick) Knudson, and their children; Rylee, Laci, Landon, Annalynne, whom Tim resided with for the past six years. He is further survived by step-brother, Marc (Vicki) Wilson, children, Trevor, Tyler, Carissa, Shelly and Justin, of VanWert, grandmother, Dorothy Anderson of VanWert, and special friend Andrew Navarro (brother of Tim's son) along with many relatives and friends in Racine, VanWert, Ohio and the surrounding area. Tim was preceded in death by his grandparents, William Anderson and Marie and Robert Plante, Ed and Lucille Sanders and his cousin, Trent Foley.

Tim's memorial service will be held at Sturino Funeral Home on Saturday November 3, 2012 at 4 p.m. with Rev. Mark Swanson officiating. Visitation will be at the funeral home on Saturday from 2 p.m. until service time.

In keeping with Tim's wishes, cremation has been held and he will be laid to rest in a private ceremony following services. In lieu of flowers, those wishing to remember Tim in a special way may direct memorials to the family.
