Walter E. 'Wally' Cushman

RACINE – Walter Eugene Cushman, 55, passed away on Friday, January 27, 2017 at Ascension All Saints Hospital.

Wally was born in Racine on February 23, 1961, to Ray D. and Nancy (nee: Champa) Cushman. He was a 1979 graduate of Washington Park High School. Wally was united in marriage to Brenda Walquist at St. Edwards Catholic Church on October 6, 1990. He had been employed by American Metal Technologies for years. Wally enjoyed hunting, fishing, bowling and camping. He also was a lifelong Packer and NASCAR fan.

Wally is survived by his wife, Brenda; sons, Anthony and Raymond Cushman, brothers, William (Barb) Cushman and their children, Candice (Nick) Goodwin, Cayla and Cody Cushman, Wayne Cushman and his children, Chad (Kristie) Cushman, Adam (Amy) Cushman and Ryan (Courtney) Cushman, sister, Diane Cushman, mother-in-law, Donna Walquist, brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Scott and Cheri Walquist and their children, Jessica and Erika, uncles, Paul (Sally) Cushman, Cy (Cheryl) Champa and Louie (Lorraine) Champa. He is further survived by numerous great nieces and nephews, other relatives and many friends.

Wally is preceded in death by his father, Ray D. Cushman, father-in-law, Robert Walquist; aunts and uncles, Bertie (William) Saunders, Stephanie (Henry) Telkes, Jr., Frank (Carol) Champa and Mike Champa.

Funeral services will be held at Sturino Funeral Home on Saturday, February

4, 2017 at 11 a.m. Wally will be laid to rest at West Lawn Memorial Park. There will be a visitation at the funeral home on Friday from 4 p.m. until 7 p.m. and on Saturday from 9:30 a.m. until time of service. In lieu of flowers, a memorial to the family or to a charity of one's choice has been suggested.

“ Brenda

I am sorry that it has taken so long for me to write this, but I needed time to get my hands, and head around what has just happened to our family. My deepest condolences to you, Tony and, Ray, and to the rest of our family for such a great loss.

Wally was one of the greatest people I knew. Always a smile on his face, a hug to give, and the ability to light up a room by just walking in the door.

We all know that sometimes he was hard to remove from a party, but that is only because he did not want the party to end.

Now his party is over here on earth, Wally has taken his last step, given his last hug, toasted his last toast, said his final goodbyes, and shut the light off as he left the party.

Because of all that he will be sadly missed by everyone, he will be in our hearts and minds forever. He always told me, I love you like a brother, and that is one brother we will all miss.

In closing all I have to say is. here's to brother Wally, brother Wally, brother Wally..... I think we all know the rest.

With all my love,

Henry

“ Love and prayers go out to you all and your families. Wally was a great friend! As are all of you. I miss being close to my good ol' friends and spending time up north. The singing the drinking and most of all the bullshit that everyone spoke! I still remember at Kevin's bachelor party that the first one to puke had to buy. Wally puked in his glass and rank it again and said that it didn't count as puking.. Gotta love him!!

“ I have had the privilege of seeing Wally's great love for his wife Brenda and his two sons Ray & Tony as well as family. I recall Wally & Brenda's wedding fondly along with their many years together. I know that your love lives on. I am thankful you are home with Jesus. Love always, Kathy (in Los Angeles)

“ Brenda;

We have been family for a long time. I am very sorry for our loss.

Wally, goodbye my brother. We partied/wrenched/and fought together. Wouldn't change a thing.

“ So many good times with Wally! He was not only part of the crowd but we worked together at Dairy Queen. Boy, did we have fun. We'd blast the music and sing at the top of our lungs while we cleaned. He always told me to move aside, I'll get that for you. All around great guy! Love to all the Cushman family.

“ To my dear cousins - I prayed that it would never get to seeing everyone at weddings and funerals, and since my Mom and Dad divorced.....it seems it is the funerals. My heart is so heavy. I cannot comprehend what you are going through. The last time I saw Wally (at a funeral) I could not get over how much he looked like his Dad. I was amazed. I loved coming over as a kid and swimming in the pool in the backyard. I loved Christmas time, when we were part of your round robins (a stop that you made with the family). I was envious of the relationship you had with the Saunders...and was always very happy when we all got together. Just because we have not spent a lot of time together - you have always been part of my family. My heart hurts for each of you - even those I may not know well, I know of you. May God hold her close to his heart, may he comfort each of you...Brenda and the boys especially, and provide you of treasured memories. xoxoxoxoxoxoxo to all of the family and friends in your lives, grieving over the passing of Wally!
