“ I knew Bill and Elaina from the dog park. They were always fun to talk with. Bill liked to tell jokes. He believed in my metal are and bought a couple of things. He even helped hang a couple of memorial plaques on the dog park fence. Even after I moved away, he stayed in touch. He was a good friend to Bill Adams before his passing. I will miss Bill.

“ To the Families of Bill, I offer my sincere condolences for you're loss. I knew Bill from the Sentry Store on Douglas, where he worked until they closed. He was my favorite Meat Cutter, and Metal Detector expert. He set me up with my first, and really only Metal Detector. What a wonderful man he was. He always had the best advice for cooking meat properly. He was a MASTER, and will certainly be missed.
