

William Glenn Heveran

November 30, 1965 - June 12, 2026

William Glenn Heveran, 60, known by his friends and family as Glenn, passed away on Friday, June 12, 2026 at Glendale Park Nursing and Rehab.

Glenn was born on November 30, 1965 in Chicago, IL to Ronald and Rose Mary (nee: Gariti) Heveran. He was united in marriage to the love of his life, Kristine Karson, on November 19, 1999 in New Orleans, LA. After attending the University of Alabama, Glenn graduated from Aurora University. He served in the United States Army from 1984 to 1986. Glenn worked at Quad Graphics as a Credit Analyst for a decade. In his free time, he was a football enthusiast and a fan of the University of Alabama Crimson Tide football team, and the Chicago Bears. Glenn enjoyed classic sports cars and caring for his yard, and he loved his dogs and cats. His son, Karson, was the center of his universe and a never-ending source of pride.

He will be deeply missed by his wife, Kristine; son, Karson; mother, Rose Mary Heveran; sister-in-law, Stacey (Tim) Kamin; niece, Sydney Kamin; nephew, Peter Heveran; mother-in-law, Marianthe Karson; and other family members and friends.

Glenn is preceded in death by his sister, Elizabeth Heveran; brother, Gary Heveran; nephew, Cody Lukaszewski; and father, Ronald Heveran.

Funeral service will be held at Sturino Funeral Home on Friday, June 19, 2026 at 11:30 a.m. Visitation will be held from 10:00 a.m. until the time of service.

Glenn will be laid to rest at Holy Family Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Froedtert & MCW Brain Injury Program, or The Arc of Racine.

Glenn's family would like to extend a special thank you to the loving and caring staff at Greendale Park Nursing and Rehab.
