Xavier Cruz

THE COLONY TEXAS - Xavier Cruz, 68, formerly of Racine, passed away after a brief illness in The Colony Texas on September 2, 2018. He was born in Billings, Montana on June 24, 1950. In the past two months he resided in The Colony, Texas and Kokomo, Indiana.

While residing in Indiana, Xavier was employed with G.M.C. He found great enjoyment singing and playing his guitar. Next to his family, his black Cadillac was Xavier's pride and joy. There was never to be found a smudge or spec of dirt to take away from his pride and joy look of "Clean to the Max".

Xavier is survived by his son, Johnny (Brandy) Cruz and daughter, Jamie Cruz, two grandsons, six granddaughters, and one great granddaughter. He is further survived by one brother, Pedro (Beatrice) Cruz of Greenville, Texas, two sisters, Olga (Jerome) Olsen and Linda (Rafael) Lagunas, and sister-in-law, Joanne Cruz all of Racine, in addition to nieces, nephews, other relatives and dear friends in Racine and Texas.

Xavier was preceded in death by his parents, Reyes and Sara Cruz, two brothers, Reyes Jr. and Homer Cruz, and one sister, Oralia Gonzales.

Xavier was laid to rest following funeral services at Restland Cemetery in Dallas, TX on Friday September 7, 2018.

“ I am from Racine, Wi. I went to school with Linda and Xavier. They lived on Washington Ave, upstairs from a bar. I lived Schiller st. Xavier was “always” nice, but kept to himself. I was browsing thru the obituaries to see if any childhood friends have passed on to their resting place. My name is Olivia Ramos when I knew them but i’ve Married but always remember the fond memories of childhood times. God Bless his family and I pray that the lord will always protect the Cruz family. Till we meet again Xavier, a childhood friend who was annoying. Rest In Peace Brother, En parte de mi Familia, Olivia Ramos Feliberty
